

Waist Bargains in the Garment Department

Never have our lines of Shirt Waists been so extensive and so complete in the really chic designs. We call your attention this week to a large showing of smart Waists out of the factory hardly ten days. The prices are very special.

At 79c consisting of plaited and embroidered fronts with the long deep cuffs and having all the style of $1.00 Waists.

At $1.19 here are to be found 14 different styles, both long and short sleeves of fine sheer lawns, pretty embroidered fronts, paneled fronts, etc. Good values at $1.50 each.

At $1.50 of high grade lawn, round yoke of German Val Lace and two rows of insertion across the front. Also beautifully embroidered all over front and short sleeves and paneled front of English eyelet embroidery, deep cuffed sleeves.

The immense showing of Summer Lawns, Dotted Swisses, Japanese Mull, Lingerie, Net, Lace and Batiste Waists, with others too numerous to mention are to be found in all the new becoming models here priced from 75c to $15.

A PRESENT FREE

Washington Baking Powder is good enough of itself to be worth the price asked, 50c per can, but to introduce it we offer any of the following presents free with each can:

A 4-pint nickel tea and coffee pot, or a 6-quart enameled kettle with cover, or a 14-quart enameled dishpan, or a cup and saucer and oatmeal dish and individual butter, or a handsome glass butter dish, or spoon holder, or sugar bowl or a pitcher.

Any one of these articles is worth the price of the Baking Powder.

Benjamin Bruce, who was a well known resident of this city, died in Aberdeen, Scotland, May 1st. Mr. Bruce had been a resident of Barre for nearly 24 years, next to Scotland on a brief last December, expecting to return to Barre this summer. He was only two days before death. His age was 66 years. Mr. Bruce is survived by several stepsons and stepdaughters.

The Neal Dow lodge, I. O. G. T., held a very enjoyable neektie social in the K. of C. hall in the Seapine block last evening which was attended by about fifty young people. An interesting program was given consisting of recitations, music and two short farces after which the neekties were auctioned off and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, music being furnished by Batchelder's orchestra.

The committee which had the occasion in charge was composed of Mrs. C. E. Coppins Mrs. J. O. Beckler, George Ford, New Parker and John Carlin.

The city clerk's office was called on today to make out an unusual certificate. It was to certify to the citizenship of Adolph Monatti of Laurel street, whose sister-in-law had been detained at the Ellis immigration house in New York since Saturday.

The young lady was coming to this city to reside with her sister and was held up by the immigration officials until she could prove that she was going to relatives. The certificate which Mr. Monatti secured showed that he had been a resident of this country for nine years and a citizen since 1903 and that his sister-in-law was coming to reside at his house.

Everybody is pleased to the the pleasant faces of Mrs. E. C. Smith and daughter, Pansy, who have recently come home from San Francisco and who were as fortunate as to escape death during the disaster which occurred there. They are glad to get back to "good old Vermont."

Mrs. Ina Rogers is home from Burlington for a few days when she will again resume her duties as matron of the "Old Ladies' Home" in that place.

Erasmus Nichols is painting and repairing his house recently purchased of the estate of Martin Wakefield and will move as soon as sufficient repairs are made.

The sad intelligence was received here from Bradford of the death of Rev. J. O. Sherburne, a former pastor here, during the disaster which occurred there. They are glad to get back to "good old Vermont."

CHELSEA.

The painters finished painting the interior walls of Congregational church Saturday and the following local carpenters, Will Goodwin, Harvey Spear and Fred Lewis commenced laying a new hardwood floor in the auditorium Monday morning.

Capt. W. H. H. Hall is having another room finished off in the Bacon & Hall block. Charles E. Godfrey is doing the work.

Mrs. Geo. A. Tracy is seriously ill as is also Mr. Tracy's mother, "Aunt Mary" Tracy, as she is familiarly called, who is thought to have suffered a slight shock Monday afternoon.

Willie, the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Adams, who has been so dangerously ill of late has so far improved as to be able to be out of doors again.

Among those from out of town who were here Monday, we noted the following, Ben Tucker of Tunbridge, Irving Covill and Deputy Sheriff Frank H. Martin of Williamstown, and Roscoe H. Williams of Corbridge.

One of the most pleasant occasions of the year was the exercises of the graduating classes of the high school and graded school which was held at the town hall Friday evening last. From the grammar school graduated the following: Alta E. Sleeper, Ola M. Hood, Beanie E. Gokney, Martha A. Rogers, Sadie B. Jones, Alice B. Lougee, Karl E. Kennerud, Arthur F. Dickenson, Harry Goodwin, Royal B. Townsend, Earle E. Fuller, and Herbert F. Comstock; and the graduates of the high school were: Jessie E. Davis, Elsie M. Hood, Margaret Comstock, Gail Corwin, Carroll P. Little and Joseph A. Tracy. The exercises consisted in total music by members of the school, declamations, essays and orations by the graduates and every effort of the members of these two classes gave evidences of careful thought, study and preparation and were rendered in so fine a manner as to be worthy of especial mention and praise. Space forbids but to say, however, that the parents of the graduates have abundant reason to feel proud of their children and every citizen of Chelsea has abundant reason also to feel pleased with the work that is being done in the schools throughout the town as was clearly demonstrated upon the platform at these graduation exercises.
